

TASK

Calculating the Service Cost

Instruction: Calculate the cost of one of your services.

To do this, take these expenses: number of days opened / hours worked per day / number of therapists. This will give you the cost per hour per service. Now add the cost of the product used per service, and that will give you the cost per service. Subtract the cost from your selling price and consider if you are happy with your profit.

